ST. LOUIS STRIKE

Another Riotous Demonstration Increased the List of Wounded by One.

St. Louis, May 25.—Sympathizers of the striking street car men were again the medium of a riotous demonstration today and as a result another name was added to the long list of wounded.

This afternoon as a car on the Jefferson avenue line running south approached a crowd of men and boys. Several shots were fired at the car. [illegible] heard the car returned the fire and in all about 100 shots were exchanged.

Peter Wells, a patrolman who was riding on the front platform, was hit in the left arm pit, the bullet producing an ugly wound.

It is not known who fired the shot at the car. [illegible] on the car drew their revolvers. It was rumored that two men in the crowd were shot but they could not be found by the police.

The difference existing between the Jefferson Railroad Company and the union men in this employ were satisfactorily adjusted this afternoon and all danger of another strike has been averted at least for the present.

CUBAN CARPETBAGGERS.

Washington, May 25.—The war department has issued a statement from the division of customs and insular affairs designed to show that the number of carpetbaggers in Cuba has been overestimated, so far as the customs service is concerned.

According to the latest returns, which were those of December 31 last, there were 668 customs employes, of whom 515 were Cubans, 39 were Spaniards and only 26 were Americans, of whom 26 were employed in Havana, the capital of headquarters.

MOTHER'S CONGRESS.

Des Moines, May 25.—The last day of the National Congress of Mothers was marked by the adoption of resolutions of a simple character and devoid of sensational [illegible] Woman suffrage [illegible] The resolutions call for legislation for dependent children of a broader and wider scope, approve the Sunday school work in America, denounce publication of objectionable matter in the public press and particularly object to the form of that advertisements which, it believes, is obnoxious to the Democratic [illegible] was devoted to a discussion of child study and reports from branches of the congress. The selection of the next meeting place went over till the afternoon session.

KILLED BY BOXERS

Chinese Insurrectionists Have Destroyed Two Villages and Massacred Christian Converts.

London, May 25.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says advices from Szechuan, province of Hu Peh, report that "Boxers" have destroyed two villages and massacred many converts of the French missionary stations.

The imperial commanding at Shi Nan Fu, it is added, sent a regiment to the scene of the disturbances. The soldiers were ambushed by the malcontents and lost twenty-six men killed.

Reinforcements have been dispatched from Ichang.

Washington, May 25.—The United States government has taken a hand in the suppression of the "Boxers" in China. Minister Conger has been instructed by the state department to inform the Chinese government that the government of the United States expects it to stamp out promptly and thoroughly this society and provide proper guarantees for the maintenance of peace and order and the protection of the life and property of Americans in China all now threatened by the operation of the boxers.

There is no indication in the instructions as to the course that will be pursued by the United States in case the Chinese government fails to observe the warning conveyed in this message. It is understood, however, that joint action on parallel lines with the representatives of every European power at the Chinese court has not been joined in any concert of action.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

Corner Stone of Bronze and Granite Monument Laid at Fredericksburg.

GENERAL BUTTERFIELD'S GIFT

Leaders of Federal and Confederate Forces Witnessed the Event A Tribute by General Wheeler.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 25.—On the very ground over which the old Fifth corps charged at Fredericksburg, President McKinley, his cabinet and General Miles today witnessed the laying of the corporstone of a shaft which will perpetuate in bronze and granite the heroism of the Army of the Potomac.

It was an impressive ceremony and indeed the more so by the fact that among the hundreds who witnessed the event were noted leaders of both the federal and confederate forces.

The monument was the personal gift of General Daniel Butterfield, to the National Memorial association. This is the only monument ever erected to a private soldier, the gift of a private citizen, as distinguished from the gifts of corporated bodies, or furnished by popular subscriptions.

General Butterfield himself was present and assisted in the ceremony, but responsibility for the committee of the association to the secretary of war was made by Colonel Hill, one of the veterans of the Fifth corps.

The ceremony was with due Masonic rites and at its conclusion the secretary of war accepted the gift in the name of the American people.

The visit of the president to Fredericksburg was in connection with the annual reunion of the Army of the Potomac. The town was in holiday and turned out en masse to receive the distinguished visitors. The president and party were welcomed at the mayor's house, which was decorated with the national colors and the various corps [illegible]

Welcoming speeches were made by prominent veterans from both sides of the Civil war and afterward the president held an informal reception at the home of St. George R. Fitzhugh, where he was welcomed by hundreds of the [illegible] white and colored.

At the close of the ceremonial party returned to Washington but the reunion services of the society of the Potomac were continued at night in the opera house where addresses were made by a number of the [illegible] including General Joseph Wheeler.

The history of the Army of the Potomac and General Wheeler, picturesque features which are very distinctive of the character, conditions, considering the numbers engaged and the stupendous character of its battles, presents a picture of martial prowess unsurpassed by any army of modern times. In some of the battles in which this army engaged [illegible] officers and soldiers were either killed or wounded, while in the great battles of Europe the losses seldom exceeded one-seventh, and in many of the European battles which history describes as severe and sanguinary, the killed and wounded were only from five to ten per cent of the force engaged. The fearful casualty list of both contending armies in the civil war was caused by the determined courage of the army which attacked and the stubborn resistance of those who met and resisted the assaulting columns. It was this heroic combination on both sides that made our most sacred memories the splendid qualities of American soldiers. Death is at all times sacred to soldiers and sailors and this is especially true when the victims are the youthful, buoyant spirits who are always first to obey their country's call to arms, but the veterans who in the field where their lives are sacrificed is the most precious memory in the history of our country. Their martial example is our pride, glory, safety and strength."

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY

Detroit, Mich., May 25.—Today's sessions were devoted wholly to the American Baptist Publication society. The annual reports of officers and of the board having charge of the Baptist publication affairs were published, showing the receipts during the year to be $622,617, an increase of $20,811 over sales of the preceding year. In the missionary department the receipts were $168,418; the deficit in this department at the beginning of the year was $6,114. At the close of the year the deficit was $11,000. This increase in the deficit was due to a falling off of legacies and special funds. The report stated that [illegible] the sales of the society [illegible]

The society has in the home field a total of 66 colporter missionaries, 1 regular school missionaries, 8 district and traveling secretaries and 4 chartered cars in service. The total receipts of the society for the year ending March 31 were $758,202; payments and credits, $758,246. The assets are $1,261,216, liabilities $90,308.

METHODIST SECRETARIES GENERALLY RE-ELECTED

Chicago, May 25.—With but four exceptions the Methodist general conference today decided to serve during the [illegible] quadrennial all the secretaries and assistant secretaries of the church benevolences and the editors of the various [illegible] church papers presing officers being in most instances reelected. The exceptions were [illegible] and Southern Education society, the assistant secretary of the Missionary society and editors of the Central, Western Christian Advocates.

The conference took up for discussion on the report [illegible] on the state of the church in regard to the attitude of the Methodist [illegible] card playing, theater going and other prohibited amusements and the prospects appear favorable for an exceedingly lively debate on the subject tomorrow before it is finally disposed of.

The majority report as presented by Bishop Pattison of Pennsylvania, favored the removal from the penal code of the book of [illegible] bearing on this subject and placing it in the discretion of the conference. The minority report favors no action. Many of the best debaters of the great Methodist body have announced their intention of speaking on the subject.

The committee on state of the church recommended that no action be taken in regard to the [illegible] of the preachers and this was approved by the conference today.

At the afternoon session the result of the balloting for secretaries and assistant secretaries of the church benevolent societies and for the editors of the various church publications was announced as follows:

Missionary society—Dr. A. B. Leonard, reelected; church extension society, Dr. W. A. Spencer, reelected; Dr. J. M. King, elected assistant secretary.

Freedmen's Aid society—two secretaries, J. M. C. M. Mason reelected, [illegible] elected.

PRESBYTERIANS APPOINTED CREED REVISION COMMITTEE

St. Louis, May 25.—The most important feature of the afternoon session of the general assembly was the business [illegible] overture, which was thought to [illegible] by the adoption at the morning session and the appointment of the committee.

During the discussion of the report from the committee on temperance Rev. Hugh Lamont of the Presbytery of Puget Sound offered an amendment protesting against the existence of any permission of liquor selling in the canteens of the army of the United States.

After a heated debate it was adopted. Moderator Dickey named the following ministers and elders as members of the creed revision committee:

Drs. Hedrick Johnson of Illinois, S. J. McPherson of Missouri, D. W. Fisher of Indiana, George R. Stewart of New York, William McKibben of Pennsylvania, Samuel P. Sprecher of Ohio, Benjamin L. Wright of New Jersey, and S. W. Dana and Elders D. R. Noyes of Illinois, John L. W. Hornsberry of Kentucky, W. R. Craft of Pennsylvania, Elisha Fraser of New York, Benjamin Harrison former president, of Indiana, Elisha Fraser of Michigan, Justice John M. Harlan of Baltimore.

Dr. Charles A. Dickey of Pennsylvania was appointed chairman of the committee by the assembly.

WELLAND CANAL CASES

Three Men Charged With Dynamiting Convicted and Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

Welland, Ont., May 25.—Karl Dallman, John Walsh and John Nolin were today convicted by Chancellor Boyd and a jury of having attempted to wreck lock 34 of the Welland canal with dynamite and sentenced to imprisonment for life in Kingston penitentiary. The jury was only five minutes in arriving at the guilt of the accused. No evidence was produced as to the motive of the men, although the crown claims that it was hatched by the Clan Na Gael.

ATTEMPT AT DYNAMITING.

St. Louis, Mo., May 25.—At an early hour an attempt was made to blow up a street car on the Spaulding avenue line of the Transit company with dynamite this morning. Two heavy explosions were heard but as far as known nobody was injured.

THE NEWS OF CRIPPLE CREEK

Visiting Labor Men Unstinted in Their Praise OF DISTRICT'S HOSPITALITY

Warrants Issued Charging Ed Phifer With Murder of Arnold Schwab and for Fischer as Accessory.

Special to the Gazette:

Cripple Creek, May 25.—The visiting delegates of the Western Federation of Miners and Western Labor Union spent today with the members of the unions of Cripple Creek and Victor, following out an interesting program, and wound up tonight with a grand love feast at Butte hall. They left at 11.30 o'clock for their homes on a special train over the Midland Terminal road.

They arrived here from Victor at 10.15 [illegible] union hall where a few speeches were made. They were dined and wined at noon and at 1.30 o'clock left on a special train for Gillett. At that point they spent a few hours as guests of the Mill and Smelltermen's union of that city. In a vacant store building a meeting was held, speeches being made by the visitors and local men. On their return trip they stopped at Cameron.

They reached this city about 6 o'clock this evening and at 7.30 o'clock in Butte hall Charles E. Outcalt presided at a meeting where one good speech after another entertained the audience for four hours. Ed Boyce of Butte, Mont., president of the federation, opened the program in a characteristic speech followed by Mike Mooney, also of Butte, Mont., J. W. Gaughan, ex-County Clerk, and one of the leading union men of the camp, then entertained the audience with a genuine union speech. A. F. McCormick of California is the large man of the delegation, and is nicknamed the "midget" by his friends. He is the humorist of the delegation and kept the audience in a continual uproar. He was called from his seat twice by the continuous applause. M. Giaquinta spoke on the benefits to merchants of organized labor in the district.

[illegible] of Arizona, vice president of the federation, among other things said that his visit to the mining region reminded him of the bright state in his memory. T. H. Eccles of California spoke on "The Relation of Unionism to Politics." He did not believe in revolutionary [illegible] but urged all to take an interest in political affairs and to stand together. John Calderwood of Victor Miners union No. 32 reviewed the progress of organized labor in the Cripple Creek district and spoke of the importance of all laborers belonging to the union. He said he was proud of the [illegible] existing between employer and employe in this camp. He called especial attention to the fact that notices posted that only those who belong to the union and are in good standing need apply for work. Dan McDonald, president of the [illegible] union, of Butte, Mont., spoke of the [illegible] organized labor [illegible] Butte, Mont., is noted as one of the most eloquent speakers of the federation and made a few fiery remarks. He wound up with a plea for the members of organized labor to [illegible] ing labor to [illegible] organize, saying that among other things [illegible] the Spaniards are the worst enemy that the laboring man has. After the speech of M. J. Conner of Butte, Mont., the audience engaged in a cheer.

The visitors are unstinted in their praise and profuse in their thanks for the reception given them, and the hospitality of the citizens of this district.

William and John White were arrested by Constable Bailey at Hay creek today, about twenty miles north of this city and were brought here and lodged in jail. They were arrested on a charge preferred by Enos Thompson and George Holmes, who complain that the prisoners stole some farming implements and grain. The warrant was issued by Justice Smith. Almon White was released on bonds a few hours after reaching the city. The date of the trial has not been set.

Warrant for Phifer.

Ed Phifer, who was arrested a week ago last Monday on the murder of Arnold Schwab at Dam Site, has been in jail ever since. Today a warrant was issued by Justice McCullah charging him with the murder and charging Fischer as accessory. As soon as Fischer is brought to this city both of them will be given a preliminary hearing on the respective charges made against them.

A marriage license was issued today to James W. Shreve, age 35, and Miss Anna Peck, age 21, both of Cripple Creek.

Mr. Henry Woodruff of Philadelphia, known as "Count," and a well known financier, will visit Cripple Creek about June 1st with the object in purchasing mining interests in the district. Mr. Woodruff, Chas. J. Gibbons, the well known liquor dealer and crack wing shot, will accompany him. They intend to be a great assistance to the camp, as they are reputed to have considerable wealth.

C. H. F. Montgomery returned today from eastern points. He has been absent [illegible] weeks.

S. E. Roberts and J. H. Rice are among the Denverites who arrived in camp this evening.

J. C. and C. H. Barnett of the K. T. [illegible] are in the camp this evening.

J. D. Newman and wife of Aspen are guests at the National.

L. C. Dana, F. C. Rich and Fred L. Ballard all of Colorado Springs, are visitors in the camp.

Mrs. Allen Price of Aspen is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Ray Green.

NEWS TOPICS FROM VICTOR

Special to the Gazette:

Victor, May 25.—Clegg Robinson and Frank Sherman were put into jail by Marshal O'Connell and booked for vagrancy. James McLaughlin, employed on the Independence mine left with the evening delegates tonight for Butte, Mont. He will also visit the Coeur d'Alene district before he returns.

Mrs. Walter McGill has gone to Lynchburg, Va., to spend the summer with relatives.

MORGAN ON PHILIPPINES

Southern Democrat Denounces Aguinaldo as Adventurer and Traitor.

WELCOME EXPANSION POLICY

Honors the President for Leading in the Course of National Duty to a Glorious Result.

Washington, May 25.—The senate today convened at 11 a. m. Mr. Gallinger presented a conference report on the bill granting a pension to Mrs. Guy V. Henry, widow of General Henry, a pension. The conferees reduced the amount of the pension from $100 to $75 a month. The report was agreed to.

Mr. Morgan introduced a bill to punish crimes against the United States not committed within a state. He said the bill seemed to unlock the dilemma the government was in now as to the extradition of an offender from the United States to Puba. The bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

The Philippines bill was then taken up and Mr. Morgan addressed himself to it. He agreed with Mr. Lodge and Mr. Spooner on many phases of their contention as to the Philippines, but as to the pending bill he differed from them on some constitutional points and as to the necessity for and wisdom of the enactment of the measure. He agreed that the Philippines were now and had been since the cession of the United States to the islands under the treaty of Paris was clear and beyond any question.

Mr. Morgan declared that no countries had ever been made by our military and naval commanders to recognize the Tagalo government. In fact, [illegible] insured the insurgents in the Philippines when Dewey arrived there and took Manila. At that time Aguinaldo was in Singapore. Coming the day in his treachery he had received from the Spaniards. He denounced Aguinaldo as a political adventurer and traitor and declared that the world knew [illegible] ourselves before all the nations of the earth had we yielded to the demand of Aguinaldo and his followers to oust the islands, and especially Manila.

Discussing the ratification of the treaty of Paris, Mr. Morgan said:

"I was in favor of the ratification of the treaty of Paris and still adhere to that conviction of duty. I believe it is the most advantageous treaty next to our treaties of 1803 and 1819 with Spain that [illegible] the nineteenth century. I am proud of the motives and their heroic support by our arms and navy that forced this treaty from an unwilling, cruel, tyrannical Bourbon despotism and again opened the [illegible] to the people of this country, especially in their honorable struggles to extend the laws and institutions of the Union between the states, and I endorse the president and [illegible] course of national duty to a glorious result.

"I am proud that our distinguished leader, Mr. Bryan, came to Washington to implore the Democracy of the senate to ratify the treaty of Paris and did not to quibble, quarrel, [illegible] senseless feasts, because the ratification would open to the absolutists another opportunity to test the courage and sincerity of the grand Democracy."

Mr. Morgan attacked the bill as concentrating all power over the Philippines in the president of the United States. It was legalizing absolutism and took away from the senate the power to confirm the appointments of the president.

Canal Question.

Mr. Morgan made a long argument in support of the Nicaragua canal and declared necessary, now we are in the Philippines. He declared there was even now a revolution in the state of Panama which was being fomented instigated and aided by various canal companies, which had propositions before the United States for its consideration, referring to the suggestions that had been made to this government by these canal companies, he inquired:

"I'd like to know how much of this kind of insolence the American senate can stand without having its stomach surprised."

Mr. Morgan denounced the syndicate which has been organized with headquarters in New York and New Jersey [illegible] for the purpose of controlling canal routes on the Isthmus of Darien. Mr. Morgan said on the mainland there was no proper reason why the pending Nicaragua canal bill should not be passed at once.

Enemies of the Bill.

Continuing, Mr. Morgan said:

"The president who is a candidate for reelection is in the hands of his friends and the friends are the enemies of the Nicaragua canal. I hope [illegible] I say I hope for the passage of the canal bill at this session or not. That depends upon two men on this floor. If they are controlled by a determination and the revenues for Republican campaign purposes [illegible] from the great railroad and canal combination and syndicates the bill cannot pass at this session. The responsibility will rest upon them."

Mr. Allison then called up the sundry civil appropriation bill, which carries $86,812,930, or over $1,000,000 more than the bill as it passed the house.

Substitutes of the 157 pages of the bill were disposed of. Without action, the bill was laid aside until tomorrow.

Representative Henry Cullen Ermentrout, late a representative from Pennsylvania, closed the day, the senate adjourning at [illegible]

TWO PRIVATE PENSIONS OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

Washington, May 25.—The house devoted two hours today to the consideration of the Alaskan civil government, without completing it.

The session from noon until adjournment was devoted under the rule to private pension bills. Mr. Talbert (S. C.) who abandoned obstructive tactics a few weeks ago, was again in evidence today. After 190 bills had been favorably acted upon by the committee of the whole, Mr. Talbert blocked their passage in the house with the point of no quorum.

Among the bills favorably acted upon today were the senate bills to pension the widow of the late Captain Gridley, who commanded the Olympia, at $50 per month; the widow of the late General M. W. Force of Ohio at $50 per month.

ARGUMENTS ON CHINESE PETITION FOR INJUNCTION

San Francisco, May 25.—Argument was begun in the United States circuit court today on the petition for an injunction filed yesterday by Ex Wong Wai, a Chinese subject who seeks to have the city board of health and Dr. J. J. Kinyoun, the federal quarantine officer restrained from keeping him from leaving the city unless they first submit to inoculation with what is known as the Haffkine serum, alleged to be a preventative against bubonic plague infection.

Judges Morrow, DeHaven and Hawley occupied the bench and the array of counsel was formidable. The court room was densely crowded with Chinese, [illegible] their white advisers and sympathizers. The attorneys for the Chinese set forth that there is not now nor has there been any case of bubonic plague in San Francisco, but despite that fact the petitioner and his fellow countrymen are prevented from leaving the city until they submit to inoculation with the Haffkine serum. The inoculation causes great pain and distress to the person subjected to it and may cause death. Its only purpose is to prevent the bubonic plague being contracted, not to cure it and as the disease has not existed in San Francisco and there is no danger of its [illegible] here the inoculation is purely unnecessary.

U. S. Attorney Coombs, on behalf of the board of health and Federal Quarantine Officer Kinyoun, read an order from the treasury department, by which, he claimed, the federal quarantine official at this port is authorized to prevent the transportation by any common carrier or boatmen or any other class of persons likely to receive contagion to other communities unless they are provided with certificates to show that they have been properly inoculated against such contagion. Mr. Coombs also read a resolution adopted by the state board of health on May 9 that the bubonic plague [illegible] in the city within the last three days.

Attorney Maguire proceeded to argue that the restraint complained of was illegal on the part of both the city board of health and the federal quarantine officer. But even if the plague did exist here, Attorney Maguire contended, the federal health officer would not be authorized to prevent travel from one county to another or from one state to another. Such matters are exclusively under the control of the local authorities.

After a number of attorneys argued on similar lines, the court adjourned until tomorrow when the argument will be resumed.

Local Japanese this afternoon filed in the United States circuit court a [illegible] similar to that asked for by the Chinese restraining the federal authorities and the local board of health from stopping Japanese from travelling to other counties or states.

FLED TO KENTUCKY.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 25.—Edward Carver shot and killed William Patterson in a political quarrel at the Republican primary at Florence today. Carver, who was a candidate for sheriff, has fled to Kentucky. Only two men witnessed the killing, but neither will talk.

If Carver is caught the extradition question between Indiana and Kentucky will doubtless be raised.

ICEMEN HELD.

New York, May 25.—Magistrate Zeller in the Jefferson Market police court this afternoon held the seven persons, officers and directors, against whom [illegible] were issued on the complaint of the American Ice company, charged with violation of the anti trust laws, relating to monopoly, in $2,000 bail each for the grand jury. The action was taken on the waiver of an examination by their counsel.

PUEBLO BOOKED FOR SECOND

Denver Supporters Give Pueblo First and Springs Second. Games Will Start Promptly at 2 O'Clock. Managers Failed to Get Together Last Night.

At Roswell Park track today the Colorado Interscholastic field day will be held. The [illegible] most prominent athletic event of the year in [illegible] inasmuch as it is the only [illegible] that brings all the schools together at [illegible] meeting and will be full of interest.

Springs Booked to Win.

The supporters of the Colorado Springs High school are confident of success in the games today. The school has always been one of the leading schools in the league, but for a couple of years has lagged in rather bad luck. Today it is believed, the team will retrieve itself from the shortcomings of the last one or two that have gone to the state meet.

In the sprints Hobbs will run, will be the local institution. He is a faithful worker and can be relied on to do his best. Comes as well as he does in practice, Hobbs has developed remarkably for a new man and may prove a point winner. Elwood of Pueblo is a sprinter of known ability and will probably give the local man all they can do.

The Bicycle Events.

The bicycle events will undoubtedly rank among the most interesting of the day. Colorado Springs will enter a team headed by Lewis, Hallowell and McKechan, but with L. and McKechan ill, Colburn, who will ride in [illegible] the reputation of the school which has always been good in the wheel events.

Denver is reported to be strong in the field events and there may be some surprises in store in these contests.

WON AGAIN IN THE NINTH

Denver Defeated Pueblo in the Second of the Colorado Series—Leisenring was Unpopular.

Denver, May 25.—Today's game between Denver and Pueblo teams who are struggling for second place in the league was one of the greatest slugging matches that has been won on the Broadway grounds, but hits bunched in the right place and a walk scored by Blair gave the game to the home team. It was a hard day and the Denver boys had to work for the victory, as the Pueblo people were hit hard throughout the game but the Denver's support was not up to the mark. Umpire Leisenring's decisions were more numerous than usual. Andrews was substituted for Blackburn in the ninth inning and Dolan played [illegible].

Announcement

The GAZETTE tomorrow morning will contain 20 pages and will be filled with interesting news and special contributions. Among others will be Fitz-Macks article on Wolcott; a timely article on Col. Torrey, of Rough Rider fame, by Henry B. Tedrow; and an interesting article on Manual Training Schools, by Mrs C. E. Dickinson of Denver.

With the full Associated Press reports and the special news service established by the GAZETTE in all sections of the State, and in the leading cities of the country, the GAZETTE has no superior in the State for daily news, and no equal in the West in the character of its special contributions.

Under the perfected delivery service recently established, people in Denver, Pueblo, Victor, Cripple Creek, Canon City and Florence, can get the GAZETTE for breakfast.

THE STATE PRESS.

[illegible] half-cents a week to such quotations.

Now several investors and would-be [illegible] have come into the business of publishing [illegible] in the country [illegible] The Times is the best things said by the press of the [illegible] more to shape the sentiment of the people of a state than all of the city dailies combined.

The Gazette freely quotes from them because what they say is interesting and instructive reading and other daily papers are now quoting because the Gazette does.

All of this is very gratifying to us and we will endeavor to get the pace in other lines by which the [illegible] can reap the benefits from having formed slumbering newspapers aroused to a show at least of vitality and enterprise even if they do have to draft behind the Gazette.

A TARIFF FOR COLORADO.

ONE of our lively Democratic exchanges, the Sterling News has a novel proposition for Affleck on state out of its financial difficulties.

It is that we petition congress to levy a 15 per cent tariff on everything shipped into the state for the next two years and to turn the money collected in this way into the state treasury.

The News is perfectly well aware that such a plan is unconstitutional, in fact it says so, but it declares that Colorado, and our president and congress have declared that a tariff for Puerto Rico is legal and constitutional.

In repeating that there is no difference between Puerto Rico and one of the states, or one of the territories of the union, this newspaper is simply stating the opinion held by Democrats differ with them.

In fact this difference is one of the reasons why the Republicans found it necessary to pass the Puerto Rico tariff bill.

For if, as the Democrats claim, the P. R. is entitled to all the privileges of the constitution, then the Philippines and any other territory that might at any time happen to be within the sovereignty of the nation would have a precedent for claiming equal rights. And so it was thought best by the Republican majority to place a tariff to impose any hardship on the people of the islands, as a sort of an object lesson to Democrats and others who [illegible] congress has a perfect right to do what it thinks best with national territory which has not been organized into states or territories. And to avoid any fair charge of hardship to the islanders it was further provided that the money should be used towards the expenses of their local government, but should not be expended for public works in the islands, and further that internal revenue taxes and finally that they could do away with this tariff whenever they chose to do so.

The imposition of a tariff on imports and exports might be a simple and easy way to reconstruct the state finances but fortunately for the people of this state they are no longer wards of the government, but fully fledged American citizens and [illegible] and follies of a Democratic state administration without the assistance of congress and the president.

THE ELECTION IN OREGON.

THE state election of Oregon will be held next Monday June 4 and the result will be watched with interest [illegible]

The campaign has progressed far enough to enable outlookers to decide upon what points the verdict of the people will be rendered and what light will be thrown upon national affairs.

It is evident that the issues in Oregon are the same as those which will be before the voters in the election of next November. The Democrats have made prominent free silver, anti-trust and anti-expansion [illegible] the Republicans have emphasized the benefits of expansion [illegible]

The interest that is being taken in the election is shown by the large registration which indicates the largest vote ever cast by this state.

For purposes of comparison it is well to note that the vote in 1896 was: Bryan, 46,662; McKinley, [illegible]; in 1898 a Republican was elected by a plurality of [illegible] and in 1898 a Republican was elected by a plurality of [illegible]

The officers to be chosen are governor, secretary of state, treasurer, supreme judge, four congressmen and members of the state legislature. The total number of voters in the congressional district ought to approximate [illegible]

THE INNER CIRCLE OF OLIGARCHY.

[illegible] form of government is that the acts of a majority of all the people are in the long run more likely to be right than those of any other [illegible] and patriotism of the select few may be better than that of the whole people, but the experience of mankind has established nothing more firmly than that aristocracy, [illegible] make more mistakes than are made by an intelligent [illegible] in its entirety.

At the present time a portion of the states of the union are going back to solve the problem of government [illegible] principles of democracy. A certain class of citizens are [illegible] State in the government of the state [illegible] are morally and intellectually [illegible] other residents of the state. The fact that they are [illegible] from their fellow citizens [illegible] in fact the charge that is made against them. It is rather that they are [illegible] in other words the white race [illegible] aristocracy, and is denying that the safest and best form of government is democratic.

If political matters would rest in their present condition there might be some basis for this claim, but attention is the most unstable form of government for the reason that it inevitably tends toward democracy on one hand and toward oligarchy on the other. Government by a school must either become a government by an intelligent class or else a government by a few. [illegible] the former tendency is already apparent [illegible] state leaders [illegible] the masses of voters [illegible] political affairs and it is difficult to keep the [illegible] of voters from the class which is short [illegible] the government of voters from the class which is short [illegible] have excluded from the franchise [illegible]

Force is literally the case in states where there is anything like an even balance of parties and where the contest is for predominant in political affairs. But in those states of the south where the negro question [illegible] affairs for the reason that they could not be trusted to exercise their rights of citizenship wisely it is natural that the Democratic leaders should look askance upon all those who advocate the extension of political rights. The Democratic leaders are different from those whose ideas of political matters are different from those who [illegible] the exclusion of Republicans. We say, but adhering to the exclusion of Republicans from power is [illegible] that happened long ago. [illegible] the history of the Democratic party [illegible] but rather [illegible] into small cliques or factions which dictate nominations and control elections as absolutely as Louis XIV ever did. There is no such thing as a representative form of government in those states.

An interesting instance of this sort of thing comes to us recently from Mississippi where the state committee has [illegible] there will be no state convention, but that delegates to the Kansas City convention will be named by primary election to be held in each county and the returns from which are to be forwarded to the state committee to be [illegible] by the committee of the state committee. This is in effect a confirmation of the state committee in power. [illegible] obviated and that body continued in power.

If this Democratic committee of twenty-one were permitted to assume the control of the Democratic party in the state it would practically be in control of the state government, and would practically be in control of democracy would remain nothing but the empty form of democracy would remain.

It is a hopeful sign, however, that this will not take place [illegible] Governor Longino is strongly in favor of the abolition of the state committee is not [illegible] if the obstinate order of the state committee is not withdrawn.

What is happening in the southern states today emphasizes very clearly the truth that no restriction of the suffrage can have more than a temporary benefit. In the end the evils which it attempts will be found to be greater than those which it is intended to cure. The path of [illegible] of all citizens is the election of officers and the making of laws. The fundamental principle of a free state and the [illegible] who judge the truth makes a long detour through the wilderness to return at last to place the [illegible] where it should be.

The exclusion of the negro from the franchise will not solve the race problem, and it will bring other problems that will have to be met and [illegible]

A COMPARISON IN FAILURES.

IN APRIL 1896, the Democratic administration was staggering towards its fall. Denounced by the majority of the people, abandoned by the majority of its political friends, had placed them in power, disgusted by their folly and their political enemies and execrated for their folly and their failures by the American people, the Democratic president [illegible] cradle maternity in congress assembled the end of their terms of office of a distressed nation, the ruins of industry [illegible]

In April 1896 there were reported 1,090 business failures in the United States with liabilities of $11,968,703, and this, it is observed, was near the end of a long period of depression and hard times which had already driven out of business all but the strongest and best established business houses. In April last less than half that number had gone out of business. In April last less others had gone out of business and in the months before and the months following other thousands had paid the penalty inevitably [illegible] for mistaken policies and blunders of administration.

Four years after the sun shines upon a nation [illegible] advanced wages and every piece of machinery is worked [illegible] Every state and every [illegible] rings the cheerful story of expansion, new industries are [illegible] the hum and roar of machinery made for every line of trade [illegible] are taking business chances that [illegible] the record of failures [illegible] and yet the record of failures [illegible] with a total loss of $[illegible] [illegible] per cent, and in liabilities of [illegible] per cent.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS

The fall campaign has already taken shape in Teller county and the best posted politicians decide that it will be Republican going in the last three years warrants this belief besides the changes in the conditions of the times. In 1896 many Republicans voted the Democratic ticket in Colorado, who would not have voted it under any other condition. Loyalty to the state was greater to them than loyalty to party. Since then the utterances of Bryan and the condition of the country has convinced them of their mistake.—(Gillett Forum.

A party which only thrives on disaster is not the party for us. The calamity howler's occupation is gone and the Populist party dies. It has largely recruited its strength from that class of people who believe that the existing government is chargeable with every thing which is amiss. As a gentleman put it the other day, "Drought, cyclones, hail storms and Nebraska bugs [illegible] Democratic scare."—(Denver Times.

It is said that President McKinley favors Secretary of the Navy Long as a running-mate in the coming campaign. Everybody wants but little [illegible] that will [illegible] Colorado had a chance.

The middle-of-the-road Populists and the plum-every-day Populists have already [illegible] for president and [illegible] for president [illegible] big fight [illegible] Kansas [illegible] Chicago City on the 4th of July next. The Republicans will be united all over the country in their choice for president, and with the many able men of this [illegible] running [illegible] will be [illegible] McKinley [illegible] will sweep the country.—(Central City Register.

The old-time Republicans of this state that is that element of the party which supported the national ticket in 1896 are greatly pleased with the fact that so many of the Silver Republicans [illegible] The movement has been of the most sweeping nature in the state's practically all the able men of the party and [illegible] in favor of the Teller and [illegible] There is nothing of the boisterous "I told you so" in the attitude of the old party men. They do not feel that because these men were Teller forced to come back or [illegible] they are glad because these men feel that they are [illegible] to the Republican party and are [illegible] to it. It does not matter [illegible] under what impulse they acted [illegible] that the Republican party has so [illegible] they want to return to it. It speaks well for the party and it speaks well for Colorado.—(Ouray Herald.

More than one hundred papers in Colorado have already made it clear that they will support the Republican candidate for president this year. There has been an great a change in the sentiment of political affairs in the state since the days of the Populist party. Four years ago there [illegible] Republicans, and those were with one [illegible] of two exceptions [illegible] will be in line this year at the republican [illegible] of that number were the leading papers of that number were the leading papers.—(Denver Times.

STATE INTERESTS

The State Karnival association meets in Colorado Springs next week. There is some danger that the membership fees of the west side of the range the state may [illegible] a little.—(Delta Independent.

The board of county commissioners now find themselves in a pretty predicament. They have sold the property occupied as a court house and commenced the erection of a new court house building in Alamo park on which they have already expended several thousand dollars and now by a decision of the court of appeals, which sustains the lower court, they are hung up for a court house site. The Iris sympathizes with the honorable and, at most times, all-powerful commissioners, and suggests that the proposed court house be erected on the west block of Lawton's addition to the city of Colorado Springs a couple of blocks east of Judge Cunningham's residence.—(Colorado Springs Iris.

The Arkansas Valley Fair directors, at a meeting held Tuesday, made further arrangements for the ninth annual fair, the big day of the fair, "Waterloo Day," falling this year on Thursday, Sept. 6. The board are all enthusiastic and are [illegible] hard to make this the bigger and better than any of the previous successful exhibits. Special features are a contest between the bang tailed [illegible] and a hog calling contest. Another attraction will be a sugar factory of the American beet sugar co. which will be completed at that time and which will be thrown open for the inspection of visitors.—(Rocky Ford Enterprise.

IN GENERAL

The colored people of Colorado Springs have received more political recognition in the past eight months than they ever did before. This is due in particular to the fact that the Democratic party, but is the logical result of a change of the Negro vote. It appears that the white people are learning lessons in politics like the intelligent part of other races. We repeat, that [illegible] than the division of the negro vote.—(Colorado Springs Enterprise.

Concerning the frauds in the postal service the Herald, in Cuba, let the United States distinguish itself from Spain by severely punishing the culprits. Fraud was winked at by the Spanish. Let it be stamped out by the Americans.—(Pueblo Mail.

The report that a real mountain lion was killed in the northern part of this county, an account of which appears in another column of this paper, is true to the best of our knowledge and belief, and not a wild western story gotten up for the purpose of influencing legislation by the next legislature.—(Hugo Lodge.

The Cuban scandal is bad enough, goodness knows but it will be ten thousand times worse if any ground is furnished for some charges already made that the administration has directed the inspectors to go slow lest they chance on some high officials whose arrest might honestly damage the Republican party. There is good reason to believe that the rascality is widespread, and the public demands that it be probed without fear or favor to the very bottom.—(Colorado Springs Democrat.

[illegible] Bryan refused to talk to a reporter who asked the [illegible] opinion of Towne's nomination as his associate. He was [illegible] directly silent owing to the position of the Democratic national committee in making an entirely new ticket.—(Stillwater Tribune.

Decoration Day Parade.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

In the daily papers is the usual announcement of the Decoration Day parade. "The city will be represented by the city [illegible] in carriages, and of the [illegible] and soldiers on foot." It seems high time our citizens were awakened to the fact that the old veterans had gone on foot about long enough and they too should be conveyed upon the march in [illegible] The parade is old, be viewed with a greater interest as it is really the last [illegible] to most of them to see the old soldiers in their weary march for the [illegible] to keep up [illegible] Decoration Day exercises as naturally [illegible] and the [illegible] when the bugle [illegible] but the [illegible] of them are prostrated from the Decoration Day march. The Rock Island Road and Colorado Springs

Never a day passes that some one of Denver papers does not go out of way to give Colorado Springs a eye in a business way.

Yesterday the Denver Republican editorially said the Rock Island had always included building into Colorado Springs.

A Gazette reporter interviewed the Rock Island agents in this city yesterday and they were most emphatic in denying any such thing. Said Mr. W. W. Wood:

The business of the Rock Island to and from Colorado Springs far surpasses that from Denver, although we run just as good trains into Denver and have just as good service to that city. The fact is that the vast majority of tourists who come to Colorado visit Colorado Springs, and our trains in and out of the Springs are always well filled.

The line was built to Colorado Springs after the mature deliberation of the best railway men in the country and the wisdom of that action is more and more demonstrated every day. Colorado Springs and the Cripple Creek district furnish full one-quarter of all the business traveling public in Colorado, and two-thirds of all tourists come to this city.

Our people may build a branch road into Denver, but the main line will still run to the Colorado Springs people. And yet some Colorado Springs people will patronize Denver newspapers!

The Rock Island will inaugurate a new sleeper service between this city and St. Louis on June 1, offering passengers of that line a through Pullman car between the two points. The car leaving here for the east will be detached to the Missouri Pacific at Kansas City at 5.15 the next afternoon, whence it will be taken direct to St. Louis. Returning the connection at Kansas City will be made at 9:50 a. m.

Forty Three Ballots and No Fire Chief

After the casting of forty-three ballots at the special meeting of the city council last night the city is as far as ever from having a chief of the fire department. The meeting was called by the mayor late yesterday afternoon but when it was called to order at 8 o'clock only Councilmen Manning and [illegible] were present. Mr. Manning nominated [illegible] for the position, but these two were the only names for which more than three votes were cast at any time. Others voted for were Grant Maybury, Keith Comsher, Tom Fair and Nels Johnson.

It is not known just when another meeting will be called but it will not be until after Decoration day.

Very little business was transacted at the meeting. The chief [illegible] up one of the matters taken up and disposed of, however, was the granting of a license to the new drug firm of Jones and Wellington. They will not get it for full six months, however, getting only to October 20th.

By unanimous [illegible] the council decided to attend the Memorial day exercises. They will also take part in the parade.

Warden Hoyt Talks on the Canon Farce

[illegible] as a consequence of the Dennis [illegible] bill, the penitentiary board, is Warden C. P. Hoyt, the official whose removal has been unanimously recommended by the legislative committee.

Warden Hoyt shipped his 350 pounds of avoirdupois on a two-horse train from Denver yesterday afternoon with the alleged escaped convict, and in a few moments had the springs in a surging, jumping together as he rode up the hill to his home, where he remained until last night at 10:30, when he proceeded to Colorado Springs.

The Belle of the Ball.

"I'm the belle of the ball," he said to a reporter about the trouble with the investigation. "They have said enough when the governor keeps the pointers I am going to give in a very short time. Just as the [illegible] said, at the outset, it is a political deal to get rid of me because I refused to stomach some of the guards and were foisted upon me in spite of protestations of their incompetence. The whole trouble arose over the fact that I refused to accept a guard the board claimed appointed. They had complied me to take [illegible] and it was through those incompetents that the complaints they harp so much on have been made. I took the medicine as long as possible and finally refused and you know the rest.

"The board says I have shipped a competent but every sportsman who knows my record of eight years with the prison stuffs at the idea and gives the charges the credence they deserve. The verdict was a premeditated affair and the officers [illegible] might as well have been done away with as far as any good they do for the appearance.

Where the Charges Started.

"It is up to the governor now. The board recommended my removal and the governor will take up the case personally and see that justice is done. It will be done and you will see the sickest lot of politicians there has been for some time when he tells the truth about the affair. The columns of charges were prompted by the same people, of course. They all came from disgruntled employes who were discharged for incompetency, but not until they were installed to the court by the men of influence who have been working against me."

Buttonhole Interviews

"You might just say a word about the time for the meeting of the who did not vote at the last election, who failed to pay the dues named on the postal cards that have been sent out. The registration books are open all day and the last chance for all such, but the number of those who have reported so far has been comparatively small, with the exception of the first day.

"The cards read at the name appears on the registration books. If [illegible] holders of the same appear at the office of the county commissioners on the 20th, 21st, 22d or 23d of this month. This means that all days inclusive between the 2nd and 23d can be used for this purpose as well as the days mentioned on the card. It is necessary, however, that the request be made on or before the 23d, or the names will be taken from the registration books."

Of course the stories of the excuses that are given by those who have been drawn for jury service are all old, but there is one broker in the city who is going to be sorry that he did not take his medicine like the rest. After having given vent to these words County Judge Cunningham leaned back in his easy chair while a peculiar little smile chased itself across his countenance.

When the last panel was drawn, the name of one of the most prominent brokers on the exchange was in the list. He came to me and made the plea that he was sick—very sick. To prove the fact, he was almost unable to talk and his expression betokened cramps. I told him to come back again in a few days and we would see if he was any better. If his physical condition continued as bad as ever, I promised to excuse him entirely. He came back on Wednesday and said that he was sick, but that he was one of the important men in the big base ball game. I let him off on that excuse also. But imagine my surprise when I found that he did not play in the game. When that broker comes back the court will make him sick for sure for he will be drawn for every night session during the term. The joke on him has leaked out, and every word of it.

ALL ESTIMATES WERE TOO LOW

Brokers Game Netted the College $823.00.

WILL PROBABLY PLAY AGAIN

Many of the Brokers are Anxious to Play Another Game and Arrangements Will Probably be Made — Letter of Thanks from College Management.

The brokers will play ball again.

The score in Thursday's game was so close that each team thinks it is the best and arrangements were started yesterday for another game in the near future.

In the meantime both associations want to thank the public, the press, the Midland band and business men who made the initial game a greater success than even the managers anticipated.

All Figures Too Low.

All estimates on gate receipts were short of the correct figure. The total profits surprised the most hopeful and will put the treasury of the College Athletic association will be in better condition than for years. The total number of people who were present was more than 2,000 and total profits from the game were $823. The statement below is from the managers of the game, each of the Messrs. Sill representing one of the associations, and shows the itemized receipts and disbursements.

Statement of the Managers.

From the College.

Colorado Springs, Colo., May 25, 1900.

To the Members of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Exchange.

Gentlemen: The Athletic association of Colorado college, comprising the faculty and students of college and academy, extends to you the most cordial thanks for the receipts of yesterday's ball game and all the money you presented to us clean cut. The money is more than the freedom from financial embarrassment, we all value the kindly interest that prompted the gift.

Yours most cordially,

Louis A. E. Ahlers, President.

For the College Athletic Association.

TIGER VS. TIGER

COLLEGE AND WHEEL CLUB WILL CROSS BATS TODAY.

Visitors Will Bring Denver League Pitcher and are Confident of Winning Out—New College Organization.

When Tiger meets Tiger, then comes the scratch, and it comes at Washburn field today when the Colorado college tiger and the Denver Wheel club tiger tear up the diamond in a mighty struggle. The base ball game between these two teams will undoubtedly be the finest game of the season so far.

The Wheel club team was soundly thrashed by the college two weeks ago and it will return this afternoon determined to turn the tables and with good chances of doing it. Webster, a pitcher of the Denver league team, has come into some money recently and has, by request of his mother, stopped playing professional ball. The Wheel club has secured him and he will pitch today's game. Webster held the Omaha league team down to two hits in the game he pitched against it in Denver recently and the Wheel club men are confident that he will find the college boys easy. The Wheel club team has been strengthened in other places and is said to be playing very fast ball.

New College Line-up.

A reorganized college team will enter the game today. Moyne has dislocated his shoulder and is laid up, probably for the rest of the season. Captain Cooley has changed over from first to short. This is Cooley's old territory and he has been doing good work there in practice. Davis, an academy man, has been put on first and is playing a good game there. In today's game, Griffith, the pitcher, will play field for the college, Hearin and Jones will do the pitching with Packard behind the bat, and all the way through it will be the strongest team the college can put out.

The Wheel club will arrive in the city at 2:25 this afternoon so it will be impossible to start the game at 3 o'clock, but it will be begun promptly at 3:30. Admission 25 cents.

Elected a Principal For the Steele School

A special meeting of the school board was held last evening at the high school, all the members of the board were present. Several important matters were brought up, but the greater part of them were referred to committees for consideration. A principal was elected for the new Steele school. Bids were opened for the erection of the new addition to the Bristol school, but no action was taken.

[illegible] was instructed and authorized by the secretary of the board to advertise for bids for the sale of the school bonds recently voted for the erection of the Hillside school building.

For the Steele School.

The board then took up the election of a principal for the new Steele school. Several applications were submitted, but the board was unanimous in the selection of Mr. Abner Downey. Mr. Downey is a graduate of the class of 1898 of Colorado college. He is a graduate of the State Normal school and has had several years' experience in teaching school. He will assume the new duties as soon as the new building is completed.

The matter of electing a principal for the high school was taken up, but definite action was postponed until the next regular meeting of the board. Two or three applications for the place were submitted, but no ballots were taken. It seems to be the intention of the members of the board to defer action until they can elect a person who has had large experience in high school work.

For Private Phone Service.

A communication from Mr. John A. Vorhees was read. It was a proposition to put in a new system of telephone communication between the various school buildings of the city. The board discussed the matter but finally referred it to the building committee. The appointment of a librarian for the high school library was also postponed, but this was also referred to a special committee. The duties of this new office will be to catalogue the new books which will soon be installed in the high school library.

Three sets of bids and plans for the new addition to the Bristol school building were submitted. The contractors submitting bids were Lynn Atkinson, A. J. Gillis and J. W. Atkinson. The lowest bid was higher than the $7,000 voted for the erection of the new addition. The matter of awarding the contract was deferred to the next meeting of the board.

The board then adjourned to meet again on Saturday evening, June 9.

All excursion rates east are in force at the Santa Fe city ticket office.

A PRACTICAL CONSOLIDATION

The Most Active Members of the Board of Brokers Accepted by the Exchange.

The membership committee of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Association yesterday accepted fifteen members of the Board of Brokers and applied to the old exchange for membership.

[illegible] the most important [illegible] in mining circles which has happened in this city since the mining craze was first in full force here. [illegible] formidable rival [illegible] has had was [illegible] which just [illegible] of the most active [illegible] exchanges have been [illegible] membership on the old [illegible] members. [illegible] will be on the floor of the old exchange [illegible] interests.

The new members will need no validating [illegible] the old exchange. These stockbrokers in this city are of the very best and they will help to make the home of their association the great [illegible] mining exchange in the world. [illegible] of the directors of the Board of Brokers [illegible] Kellogg. The [illegible] and [illegible] fifteen goes [illegible] they owed running into the new exchange.

The time when the fifteen have paid [illegible] $1,000 each will add $15,000 to the treasury of the old exchange. This money has all been paid in, and the new members have agreed not to sell their seats for one year thus removing the speculative element from the affair. [illegible] seats are selling at about $[illegible] each, however [illegible] seat could be sold before [illegible] year.

The financial standing of the old exchange is now one of the best [illegible] In January it received [illegible] membership fees and [illegible] $64 [illegible] bank.

There are now 125 members. The original membership was 25 which [illegible] last January and [illegible] As there are about $3,000 [illegible] seats it can be estimated [illegible] seats are worth $[illegible] which is a remarkable showing for a mining exchange in [illegible] city.

[illegible] members who [illegible] the exchange will make it [illegible] the only mining exchange of any influence in the state and [illegible] in the country. It is understood that the Board of Brokers [illegible] to do business, but with [illegible] membership and in the [illegible] which the loss of [illegible] active members [illegible] the fortune of [illegible] industry [illegible] the best for [illegible] should [illegible] granted.

For several reasons the names of the new members of the old exchange are not given to the public at present, but it is understood that there will be no objection to publishing the entire list in a few days.

[illegible]

$30,000,000 FOR PORTLAND

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, May 25.—There is a deal on for the properties of the Portland Gold Mining company [illegible] Your correspondent has up to [illegible] that after Mr. John Hays Hammond the world's famous mining engineer, had made his quick inspection of the Portland properties and was told of the amount [illegible] the city to make an offer [illegible] for the entire property.

It is stated further that he guaranteed to pay this enormous price for the company's holdings provided the examination proved up the values contained in the [illegible] as represented to him by President Burns. This [illegible] fact that the same agent was authorized to purchase as much of the stock as he could procure for less than $5 per share is probably the reason for the recent activity and great strength of Portland stock on the market.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

Gold Coin sold yesterday morning at $5.50, which is the highest price at which a share of stock has ever sold on the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Exchange, although Portland would have sold much higher had the capitalization of that company not been three times as great as that of the Gold Coin. The last price at which the stock sold on the old exchange was $4.25, and so since the last sale the stock valuation of the company has been increased $1,250,000. The present stock valuation of the company is $5,500,000, and with the recent showing in the mine it would probably be very difficult to secure the property at twice that price. Active work is going on, and the company is installing the finest plant of machinery in the district over its property.

In regard to the sale yesterday, it can not be taken as one which would occur any time if the stock were offered at that price. For some time it has been the gossip of mining circles that a certain broker was short 500 shares of Gold Coin. The sale was made on the Board of Brokers at $5.50, and in order to deliver the stock the broker was obliged to apply to a gentleman of this city who is a holder of several thousand shares of the stock. It is understood that the 500 shares which were bought yesterday will be returned to the gentleman who [illegible]

BOB LEE STOCK IS STRONG BUT WHY?

Inquiry was made at the offices of the Bob Lee company in this city relative to the strength of the stock which has been one of the features of the market for the past two days. The officers said [illegible] development work going on on the property, but that no report to that effect had been received in this city since the time Co. Lessee Bayhar and Russell made a good strike at a depth of about 4 feet on the Bayhar [illegible] but the vein was narrow and it was found that another month would be needed before it would be a paying proposition. [illegible] probable that the veinlias widened and that a good body of ore is the result. Trading in the stock has been very heavy, and the price has advanced to 6½.

EXCHANGES MAY HOLD ONLY ONE CALL.

This is when the hot weather comes. There is an effort being made in this city to induce the old exchange to hold only one call during the heated season, and it is understood that a similar move is on in Cripple Creek in regard to the mining exchange in that city. The idea seems to be that when the weather is so hot that business is dull and the brokers idle it is really to the interest of the exchange to limit the number of additional calls to be made in the afternoon. This would reduce the volume of business, however, as there would not be the chance of scalping done which there is now if the calls when scalping could be done twice out in two. It is not known at present just what course the governing committee will take in the matter.

THE KLONDYKE PROPERTY HAS BEEN LEASED.

Klondyke has been one of the best traders in the "big call" on the old exchange of late, and it now has been generally known for some time that the stock, notwithstanding its extraordinary high valuation, would be leased. The lease has been granted to the company's property at the foot of Squaw mountain, and it is expected that the new company will be able to pay the ten per cent. royalty, or, the stock during which time it has declined about a cent. The lease has just been granted to Louis Lowe, who is well known in the district, and it is said that the new company will be able to pay the ten per cent royalty. The stock has now declined to 3½ and it is thought that it will be a good investment at that price.

GOULD COMPANY SELLS ITS TREASURY STOCK.

One of the prominent transactions yesterday on the mining exchange was the sale of 41,000 shares of Gould company stock, which is held in the treasury of the company. The shares are part of the treasury stock of the Gould company which was sold in order to meet a payment of a note due on the Sitting Bull claim. The money realized from the sale of the stock was the good [illegible] There is some more in the treasury of the company, so there has been talk of another assessment due on the purchase of the claim from [illegible] also [illegible] is now [illegible] [illegible] is thought that [illegible] treasury to make the [illegible] treasury stock [illegible] shares.

The [illegible] yesterday [illegible] good [illegible] [illegible] to the Los Angeles Mining [illegible] [illegible] Gold [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Look Out for a Big Market.

Notwithstanding Stocks have advanced strongly during the past two weeks, a greater advance will surely come. Prices are still low in the case of many of the really meritorious Stocks. Those who were waiting for "the bottom of the market" a few weeks ago, now see the short-sightedness of such a course. It is infinitely better to buy within half a cent or a cent of the bottom than it is to wait and then buy several cents higher. Those few cents would now represent a good profit had you not waited "for the bottom." There are many good purchases on the list now. Write us, and we will give you our carefully-considered recommendations.

A GOLD HILL SNAP.

A certain Gold Hill Stock represents the best "buys" on the list, in our opinion. The company is soundly managed, and owns a fine claim on the very richest part of Gold Hill. The two sets of lessees now working this claim have ore. The Stock is cheap, and is a snap at present price.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, May 2[illegible]. The market in the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Exchange was in a better condition [illegible] than yesterday. Although the trading is still supposed to be somewhat [illegible] on the surface, [illegible] more than it has been doing, especially in the mines [illegible] which are very well patronized from beginning to end. The popularity of the shipping mines at present [illegible] in the [illegible] is very marked, and seems to be on the increase. But it is thought that [illegible] coming when the prospects will have their innings, and certainly [illegible] of prospects strikes them which at present is rolling over the shipping mines, prices will materially advance among those stocks, many of which are now selling for [illegible] their intrinsic or prospective worth. It seems [illegible] that no one should be told that this is a good time to buy prospects stocks.

The features of the trading are headed by Alacania. It will be remembered that this stock sold as low as 25½ a few calls ago, and this afternoon it gained steadily to 28½. It began to recover in the morning, but the strength on the first call did not compare to that manifested on the second. Portland [illegible] considerably [illegible] advance, opening at [illegible] as slightly stronger, selling to the amount of [illegible] hard lot at $2.33. Elkton, which sold as high as $1.51 on the morning, opened a cent lower in the afternoon, [illegible] adding ½ during the call. Bo-Co was fractionally lower in the afternoon [illegible] in the morning, selling at 56, but still strong in sympathy with Elkton. While Lexington was a good trader, at 18½, and Work sold up to 33¾. Bob Lee was a very heavy trader, selling to the amount of 24,000 shares in the afternoon at 6¾, a point below the morning's closing price, and should sold at 40 a cent lower than the price in the morning. Mollie Dwyer is off a point again, but Nellie V. was quite strong at 11¾. Although Gold King has not been a heavy trader, there was $1.05 bid for it in the afternoon, and in the morning it could not be sold at $1.05½. This strength is supposed to be due to the possibility of the company being sold to the Venture Corporation.

The sales for the day amounted to 442,000 shares exchanged, the cash value being $104,874.50.

THE PROOF WE OFFER.

This should convince the greatest Skeptic in Colorado Springs.

The reader, if suffering from either weakened or over-excited kidneys, is respectfully asked to call at 323 East Caramillo street and interview Mr. C. S. Knapp, Assistant Press operator, concerning his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. That gentleman says:

"Long before I came to Colorado Springs I knew all about Doan's Kidney Pills in the state of Massachusetts, where they are considered a household remedy. I used them several years ago for a lame and aching back and I have such scores of statements from representative citizens of Worcester and other cities in the East, all emphatically endorsing the claims made for that preparation. My advice to anyone suffering from either weakened or over-excited kidneys is to procure Doan's Kidney Pills at the Smith-Wilson Drug Co.'s store, 21 Tejon street, and a course of the treatment, and the results promised will inevitably follow."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

$2,250,000

Was the output in gold of the Cripple Creek mines for the month of March. This is at the rate of $27,000,000 for the year 1900. Unless the threatened shut-down of many mines occurs, on account of excessive transportation and reduction charges, the output will exceed $27,000,000, and may reach $30,000,000. This is a wonderful record for a district only nine years old, but it is only the beginning. The number of producing and dividend paying mines is steadily increasing and it will be years before the maximum output of the mines is reached.

WHY ARE PRICES FALLING?

I am receiving numerous inquiries from all over the United States why many stocks are falling in price in spite of the splendid condition of the mines. INFLATION IS THE CAUSE. Owing to this splendid condition of the mines, owing to the immense output of gold from the good mines, it has been possible for some companies to float their stocks at far above the intrinsic value of their properties. Other stocks have advanced through sympathy with good stocks, through shrewd manipulation, far beyond any price warranted by the development, present condition or future prospects of their mining claims. These fictitious valuations could not be maintained and a reaction was inevitable. Nicely worded prospectuses filled with "glittering generalities" and extravagant promises may sell stock, reports of big strikes and exhibits of high assays may satisfy the purchaser for a time, but, soon or late, the truth becomes known. If a claim is shipping a few tons of ore per month, the agony is often prolonged, and the public led to believe that another dividend payer is budding out.

It is the flotation of so many of these inflated stocks that is causing a steady drop in prices, and the threatened shut-down of the mines is not the prime cause, but only gives another shove.

The market moves up or down usually as a whole. Many good stocks have been caught in the general downward movement and are selling far below their actual value. These stocks will react and are now splendid investments.

WEED OUT YOUR INFLATED STOCKS

The longer you hang on to them, hoping for a turn, the more money you will lose. Among the worst inflated stocks on the list, in my opinion, are ALERT, ALAMO, COLORADO CITY AND MANITOU, GOLD SOVEREIGN, LEXINGTON, NATIONAL, PAPPOOSE, POINTER and VOLCANO. All of these are a slide down to one-third or one-quarter of their present selling price.
